PERSONAL PROFILE

Senior Fullstack Javascript Developer and aspiring learning machine. I am used to working independently in a fast-paced, changing environment and take pride in writing quality code that delivers value to its users. My journey to balance short-term business goals against long-term developer speed have made me a fervent believer in Agile, Test Driven Development, and the improvement of Developer Experience. I am looking to continue growing -as a person and as a developer-, and open to new challenges and projects. Do not hesitate to get in touch! ;)

Fun fact? This CV was made with Latex; check my “LatexCV” repository on github.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Backend Lead, Cyferd, Remote, Spain

Aug 2021-Now

- Led a 5-person team and took a highly decoupled microservice architecture from proof-of-concept to production-ready platform
- Developed across all backend (storage logic, microservice orchestration, 3rd parties integrations, monitoring, etc) and implemented from scratch the platform’s multi-tenant authentication.
- Worked with the team through two migrations: NATS Streaming to Kafka and from Neo4j to PostgreSQL.
- Created several projects to improve developer speed: CI and CD pipelines, styling and formatting enforcers, local-deployment tools, and a devcontainer with the development environment.
- Learned and promoted agile good practices: small prs, incremental improvements, definition of acceptance criteria, test-driven-development, etc.
- Established a tradition of fortnightly training calls with the double goal of giving the host the opportunity to practice public speaking and spreading knowledge across the team.

Senior Frontend Developer, Cyferd, Remote, Spain

Apr 2021-Aug 2021

- Early employee in a low-code/no-code startup with a product capable of implementing any form-based app
- Worked on the frontend’s view engine, simplifying its code and adding the ability to react to user actions (clicks, form input changes, etc)

Fullstack Javascript Developer, Gloval (Avansis), Remote, Spain

Nov 2020-Apr 2021

- Developed microservice and microfrontend applications with Reactjs, Express, GraphQL, MongoDB, Postgres and Docker.
- Led the implementation of several projects and good practices to improve code quality and developer speed.

Fullstack Javascript Developer, Linkproved, Remote, Spain

Dec 2018-Jan 2020

- Maintained the main site working with Reactjs, Express and MongoDB.
- Developed and maintained a microservice for search and keyword recommendation using Gensim, Python and Django.

Fullstack Javascript Developer, Self-employed, Remote, Spain

Aug 2016-Nov 2020

- Developed Single Page Apps, Backend Servers, Conversational Interfaces and Mobile Applications.

NextGame Sport Cofounder, NextGame Sport, Manchester, U.K.

May 2016-Sept 2016
